WHAT'S UP FRONT?

Milwaukeean Arthur Willie's artwork graces In Step's cover for the first time, with his "flag-draped" male figure. Arthur is a fairly well known figure around town, and his talents are just beginning to develop. Our favorite medium -- air brushing -- is one of Arthur's specialties. In Step wishes everyone a "Firecracker" of a 4th and looks forward to the year that the USA's gay and lesbian community can fully celebrate our "Independence Day".

NOTE: Dance Steps and Lipstick columns will return next issue.
The National Gay Task Force (NGTF) recently filed a class action lawsuit challenging the policy of the Department of Defense to issue less than honorable discharges to military personnel who are separated from the U.S. Armed Forces because of homosexuality. The action was filed on behalf of NGTF by American Civil Liberties Union attorney Bart Strickman. In the lawsuit, filed in U.S. District Court in Washington, DC, NGTF charges that more than 5,000 veterans have had their military service characterized as less than honorable for conduct that did not affect performance of their military duties.

Commenting on the filing, Virginia Apuzzo, Executive Director of NGTF, said, "This action is one of a series of efforts by NGTF against remaining government sanctioned discrimination. The policy of granting less than honorable discharges on the basis of sexual orientation is especially abhorrent in light of the dedication and pride with which gay men and lesbians have served and are serving our country."

One of the named plaintiffs in the lawsuit, Lilli M. Vincenz, had her military service recharacterized to honorable discharge, making it difficult to obtain employment in civilian society. NGTF asserts that many of its nearly 10,000 members are affected by the challenged military policy because less than 100 members of the U.S. Armed Forces and, unbeknownst to their commanding officers, are gay or lesbian.

Pipe Bombing Suspect Indicted On 21 Counts

Earl Steven Karr, 24, who allegedly filled 21 pipe bombs in three states, was indicted by a federal grand jury in Minneapolis, MN, recently on 21 counts involving manufacturing, possessing, and transporting explosive devices. The most serious of the 21 counts charges Karr with interstate transportation of destructive devices from Minneapolis to Chicago and Milwaukee "with intent to intimidate, injure or kill, where injury actually resulted," said U.S. Assistant Attorney John Lee.

A City of Milwaukee employee was slightly injured when one bomb exploded May 31st near the Milwaukee County Courthouse. The count carries a maximum penalty of 20 years in prison and a $20,000 fine. The other 20 counts each carry a maximum penalty of 10 years in prison and a $10,000 fine.

Seven of the counts in the indictment charge Karr with the unregistered manufacture of seven pipe bombs recovered in Stillwater and St. Cloud. Other counts charge him with unregistered possession of pipe bombs, component parts and a destructive device, and transportation of destructive devices.

Karr was previously charged in a felony warrant in La Crosse County with six counts of endangering safety and one count of possession of explosives for unlawful purposes. Authorities in Stillwater, St. Cloud, Chicago and Milwaukee say he is still considered a state charges against Karr.

Karr was set to be $300,000 last week before a hearing a federal judge in Karr's hospital room in St. Paul, MN, "and that stands," Lee said. Continued on page 5

MCC Endorses National March

Metropolitan Community Church (MCC) has endorsed the National March for Lesbian/Gay Rights and offered their help to make the National March as successful as possible. National March organizers will soon disseminate information through their mailing list of 5,000 supporters. MCC's endorsement is particularly significant in that with their support, the National March has now been endorsed by every major national gay/lesbian organization in the country. The list of national endorsers includes the National Gay Task Force, Gay Rights National Lobby, National Coalition of Black Gays, National Federation of Parents and Friends of Gays, National Association of Business Councils, and Black and White Men Together — International.

Additionally, the National March has been endorsed by the National Organization of Women, as well as the California and Iowa chapters of NOW.

Bobbi Campbell, a person with AIDS, has now been confirmed as the fourth speaker for the rally following the National March, July 15th. Bobbi, through his efforts to raise funding for AIDS research, has become nationally known appearing recently on the cover of Newsweek magazine. He joins Ginny Apuzzo, Morris Knight and Bill Owell in addressing the audience, estimated by National March organizers to reach over 100,000 people.

The National March is still seeking sponsors and Angels to help fund this historic event. For more information on how you can participate, call at (415) 863-5005.

Democrats Urged To Address Gay/Lesbian Civil Rights

The National Gay Task Force (NGTF) called recently for the Democratic Party to write a platform that is explicit about gay/lesbian concerns for presentation to the National Convention in San Francisco this July.

Speaking on the second day of the party's platform committee hearings in the nation's capital, NGTF Executive Director Virginia Apuzzo said, "We are not embarrassed to ask this party to make specific and unequivocal commitments to fairness and justice."

Noting that the Democratic Party has traditionally supported minorities in their fight against discrimination, Apuzzo said that the Democrats' stance in 1984 must be just as committed to gay/lesbian civil rights. "We are not seeking commitments that will tie the hands of candidates running on this party's ticket or bind a future Administration to policies that might be difficult to implement," Apuzzo added. "But this platform must avoid vague rhetoric that is so broad as to be meaningless."

“Barflies”

by Ron Gelman & Dave Irazi
Co-Editors and Publishers

“harassment!” problems occurring? ON OUR FRONT LINE — the bare and other social settings.

In Step seems to appeal mostly to “non-activists,” but we do try to educate and inform — on more than just bar activities. The survey also showed that the most popular sections within this magazine are the “Briefs,” “Comment,” “Consider This,” “Group Notes,” “The Calendar,” and “Steppin’ Out.” The only sections dealing with the bars out of that list are “The Calendar” and “Steppin’ Out,” however both contain other “non-bar” information. Those other “favorite” sections don’t sound like they’d be of interest “barflies!”

We certainly have more group notes and briefs if organizations in this state would get off their duffs and at least send us their meeting “minutes”. If the (organizations) want more community involvement — it’s their job to get the information to the gay and lesbian publications (allowing sufficient time for deadlines). (It’s too much to hope that they would actually send us press releases.)

This publication is a business. Advertisements almost cover the costs involved in putting out In Step — and we’ve turned down much needed advertising revenue because we did not particularly agree with an establishment’s policies towards gays and lesbians (i.e. — having a “gay” night one or two nights a week, discriminatory actions, etc.) As editors we feel it is our commitment to our readers to assure everyone that any advertiser appearing within these pages will openly welcome our business. We are not a sleazy publication — and, for the record — we don’t show genitals. Occasionally something “borderline” may appear, but that is always weighed against the rest of what we publish.

It’s too bad Ms. Nichols and Ms. Gaylord condemned In Step to “barfly”dom — we wonder if they’ve ever actually read it . . . or just thumbed through and looked for “dirty” pictures.

We welcome your comments.

Even In Our Own House
by Miriam Ben-Shalom

The Governor's Council on Gay and Lesbian Issues met in Milwaukee on June 2nd at the War Memorial Center. What began as a solid working meeting ended with less than honor; indeed, it was ironic that a "war of words" ensued in so honorable a place as the Memorial.

Ron Geiman, one of the co-editors of In Step was in attendance at the meeting. During a lull at the meeting — while members were preparing a statement to the press concerning the pipe bombing incidents (which In Step never received) — verbal abuse of sorts erupted, with Mr. Geiman and In Step being targeted by some very nasty and uncomplimentary remarks by two female council members: Kathleen Nichols, co-chair of the council and Shelly Gaylord, a council member representing Madison. The gist of the remarks concerned the cover on issue #10 of In Step, In Step's readership, and the value of that readership, as well as an allusion to a not-yet passed Madison pornography law being engineered by Ms. Nichols.

Let me step in for one moment and talk about that issue's cover — the one with an unclad young man in what appears to be a position of bondage. Person.

So what then, did Ms. Nichols and Ms. Gaylord accomplish with their nasty remarks? Was it in the best interest of gay liberation for these two women to absolutely categorize In Step as being "a bar rag?" And to further state that all readers of In Step are "barbells" with apparently little or no value to Ms. Nichols because they aren't involved? Was it in the best interest of gay liberation to say that In Step has nothing of interest for (I suppose) lesbians? According to several people who were present at the meeting on the time of all this weighty bombasting, Ms. Nichols also leveled at Mr. Geiman what appears to be a veiled threat in that, "If (my) pornography law were passed, you (Mr. Geiman) couldn't even distribute In Step in Madison . . . It would be pornography . . ." Was that in the best interest of gay liberation?

I am saddened to see that the most prestigious gay organization in Wisconsin has at its helm and as members the kind of person displaying the kind of negative, discriminatory attitudes one might have thought only to associate with a Jerry Falwell. They are, of course, entitled to their personal opinion, but to throw out the baby (95% of the gay community who aren't involved with organizations or liberation work per se) with the bath water (gay publications which attempt outreach to you "barbells" readers) is an unconscionable position for one in a leadership role, like Ms. Nichols and Ms. Gaylord. Furthermore, to behave like such political activists with the press present, which was allotted for a Milwaukee representative, the man who filled that position resigned. The Milwaukee community has elected a full slate of individuals to fill the positions accorded us. Isn't it time that the least supporting us by being gay and the state. Population means YOU, 95% of the gay community is your right and your privilege to decide whether or not to be "involved" with political activism. And, while those of us do political work would dearly love to see more of you joining and working for (I suppose) lesbians? According to several people who were present at the meeting on the time of all this weighty bombasting, Ms. Nichols also leveled at Mr. Geiman what appears to be a veiled threat in that, "If (my) pornography law were passed, you (Mr. Geiman) couldn't even distribute In Step in Madison . . . It would be pornography . . ." Was that in the best interest of gay liberation?

If the Governor's Council is to maintain the trust of gays and lesbians here in Wisconsin, it seems clear that stringent action must be taken. Although these can never be grading in terms of the hurt caused by insensitivity, even Cabinet members and national politicians have been forced to resign after their positions are lesser remarks. It must be seen that the only course of action must be for Ms. Nichols and Ms. Gaylord to immediately resign their positions over their derogatory remarks. We cannot have Governor Earl's magnificent gesture to our community sabotaged by ineffective and insensitive leadership. And if Ms. Nichols and Ms. Gaylord will not resign (and given their attitudes, I would doubt that happening), then the council must either require their resignation or begin to police themselves to remove the quality of the leader, role, like Ms. Nichols and Ms. Gaylord. Furthermore, to behave like such political activists with the press present, which was allotted for a Milwaukee representative, the man who filled that position resigned. The Milwaukee community has elected a full slate of individuals to fill the positions accorded us. Isn't it time that the least supporting us by being gay and the state. Population means YOU, 95% of the gay community is your right and your privilege to decide whether or not to be "involved" with political activism. And, while those of us do political work would dearly love to see more of you joining and working for (I suppose) lesbians? AIDS Course Offered

A continuing education program designed for psychiatrists, social workers, nurses and other health service providers who might work with AIDS victims or their families will be held at the Conference Center of the Mendota Mental Health Institute in Madison on June 28th. People who might counsel members of the general public panicked about contracting AIDS are also encouraged to attend.

The program, titled "AIDS: The Psychosocial Issues" is being sponsored by the Mendota Mental Health Institute and will cost $20.

Anyone wanting more details on the program should contact Joan Graber of the Training Department at the Institute, 608/244-2411, extension 486.

2nd Annual Miss S.E. Gay Wisconsin Pageant

Plans have been finalized for the 2nd Annual Miss Southeastern Gay Wisconsin Pageant, to be held on Sunday, July 29th at 1101 West in Appleton.

Contestants are expected from all over the state to compete in four categories: interview, evening gown, costume walk, and talent.

The winner will receive cash, prizes, a trophy, and performance bookings in Milwaukee and Chicago. The first runner up and high scorer of each category will each receive trophies.

The entry fee is $15 and applications are available from 1101 West; M & M; Milwaukee; The Shack, Kenosha; or, from B. J. Daniels, the reigning Miss Southeastern Gay Wisconsin. The pageant is being presented by King Productions of Kenosha.

Bike Trip Planned To Door County

Milwaukee GAMMA has announced plans for a bike trip to Door County the weekend of July 13-15.

The group will camp out at Potawatomii on Friday and then bike to Egg Harbor on Saturday with a night on the town in Sturgeon Bay. The tour continues Sunday on the Ahnapee Trail.

The cost is $7.50 per person (for the campsite costs) with reservations required prior to June 30th. For more information contact Jim (414/332-9840) or Bob (414/983-9833) for more information and details.

Nothin' Dirty Goin' On

A summer garden presentation at Your Place will be offered June 29th and 30th at 9:30 p.m. The show is titled Nothin' Dirty Goin' On. It will feature Doris, Charlotte Lorraine, and Concepcion. Special guest will be B. J. Daniels. A spirited and lively ensemble including Suzi Arnold, Mary Young, Bob Kozinski, Dean Pardowski, and Pat Murphy will present some delightful production numbers for your musical enjoyment.

The show will include selections from this year's Tony Award winning show as best musical of the season, La Cage Aux Folles, Pippin, and The Best Little Whorehouse In Texas.

Second Thoughts —
More Deep Thoughts & Observations
by W. W. Wells, III

I bet it would be really embarrassing to go to the store to buy condoms and ask for a box of smalls.

I enjoy getting mail — especially obscene letters.

When the Japanese say their pledge of allegiance, do they say, "One nation under Godzilla?"

More things have been done in the name of progress than any other. I myself have been guilty of this. When I was 17 I stole a car, drove it into the country and set it on fire. When the police arrived and asked me what happened I said, "Hey, progress." Boy did I have a lot to learn.

I smoked pot for the first time last night and had a deep emotional sexual experience. Too bad there was no one there to share it with.

One reason a lot of people think hunters are evil is they believe all deer are like Bambi. Well, they're not. Take, for example, Vinnie the Deer. The guy was into loan sharking, bookmaking and prostitution. He was a wildlife lowlife. When a hunter finally shot him and had Vinnie for dinner, the entire deer community was relieved — they even sent the hunter a thank you note for removing a blight from their community.

If people pick on me too much I start to feel like a booger.

Most of my friends think I'm getting a bit weird just because I'm considering a race change operation.

I wish Joey would keep the apartment as clean as his pot.

Maybe I'm just picky, but I won't go on a date with anyone until I've checked their credit rating.

Sometimes I wonder if Fred Flintstone and Barney Rubble were getting it on.

One advantage Joey has over me is he can kiss my ass and I can't.

My theory on food is, if I don't eat I'd probably die.

Whether they find life there or not, I think Jupiter should be considered an enemy.

For all you people waiting breathlessly for the Win-A-Date with W. W. Wells III contest, it has been postponed to a future issue.

Next issue: W. W. Wells does Bobby Rivers.

Fest, Fourth and Filth

by Ron Gelman

Milwaukee's festival of festivals — Summerfest '84 — arrives at the lakefront June 28th for an 11 day stay through July 8th. From noon until midnight, everyday, you can catch up to 30 performances at 10 different stages and areas.

Summerfest's menu of entertainment will delight and fulfill every musical palate . . . rock, pop, big band, jazz, country, symphonic, along with comedy and international folk music. All that music is complimented by an incredible array of food — and lots of Milwaukee's favorite beverage, beer.

You get all that (except the food) for a $5 gate admission — and you even get a free sunburn thrown in, to hoot. For more information and schedules, see the "In Step Guide to Summerfest" (just some of the better highlights) elsewhere in this issue.

For those of you from out of town — two hotels in Milwaukee that know how to treat gays right are the Marc Plaza and Park East — and they are both within walking distance of the Summerfest grounds.

Female impersonators have a full slate of pageants and contests coming up. The first will be the "Miss South Eastern Gay Wisconsin Pageant" slated for Sunday, July 29th at 1101 West in Appleton. Sunday, August 5th is the "Miss Gay Continental Wisconsin Pageant" at the Milwaukee Performing Arts Center — Bradley Pavilion. Then the big one — "Miss Gay Wisconsin" at Milwaukee's Marc Plaza hotel on October 28th.

In Step honestly tried to cover "Daddy's Day Weekend" at Rod's — but we arrived a little too late. We left Milwaukee at 6 p.m. — and arrived in Madison at 11:45 p.m. Normally, the Madison trip takes about 1½ hours — but no — we (four of us) had to get a flat tire (our spare was flat), and then sit through tornadoes and thunderstorms, complete with hail. Thank god, one of Wisconsin's finest — a real attractive State Trooper came to Pier 892 Hotel on Lake Geneva also offers a quiet alternative vacation, in a "country inn" setting.

Lake Geneva's Georgian Guest House welcomes gay and lesbian clientele to their elegant inn.

CHICAGO: "... One of the best dance bars around."

MINNEAPOLIS: "A hot place to be..."

NEW YORK: "... A great party bar."

HOUSTON: "If this bar was in our city, it'd be packed every night."

our rescue. Usually "exchanges" with law enforcement officials are not pleasant — but this trooper was real friendly (with a dark moustache, square jaw and big shoulders — real stud material). My partner Dave and I tossed a coin to see who got to ride with the officer — Dave won. His attitude didn’t change after Dave told him about In Step — which really impressed me. When we finally got to Rod’s (45 minutes before closing), we were all soaked (from changing the tire in severe thunderstorms) — but Rodney and his staff (especially Doug, Kelly, Larry and Dan) took good care of us.

In Step/Rod’s Swamp Wrestling Score:
In Step, 2; Rod’s, 0.
(In Step’s "other" photographer, David, pinned Rod’s Manager Doug — twice.)

Rod’s staff won "Family Feud" against The New Bar staff — however, the word is out that the Rod’s team offered "favors" to the judge.

We’re still working out some of the details yet, but hopefully we’ll be starting an In Step mail order division that will handle a rather unique line of men’s and women’s "personal" items as well as novelty items — and some real erotic garments. We thought it would be interesting to explore doing this for all of you who either cannot find some of these things, don’t like going into stores that sell them, or dealing with out of state mail order houses. Watch for the ad and/or more details in the upcoming issue.

I simply must congratulate my "son" Tommy — he’s been the head cook at M&M’s Glass Menagerie for a year now and "the kid’s done great!" Since he’s taken over the stove — the Menagerie’s food has been consistently good. On top of that — he’s easy to work with and he’s cute, too.

And if you’re stuck downtown and need a restaurant where gay clientele are welcome — try Peter’s On 4th, on 4th St. between Wisconsin Ave. and Wells St. in Milwaukee. They have a gay chef and the food is real good. Service is from 11 a.m. to 9 p.m., Friday and Saturday until 11 p.m. Their ad (in this issue) has a "2 For 1" offer.

JOCK SHORTS

Sports In A Nutshell

by Tom Salzsieder

Three teams are tied for first place in Division 1, while Division 2 tightened up as the results of games played on June 16. Factory II, Finale, and Your Place all share first place, with 7-2 records. Your Place scored a run in the bottom of the 7th inning to edge the Factory II 8-7 on a clutch 2-out single by Lon. Y.P. had scored 3 in the 6th to take a 7-5 lead, but Factory II tied the game in the top of the 7th with 2 runs. Factory rebounded to beat the Ball Game 9-4. Finale grabbed a share of the lead with a 9 run explosion in the 6th to nip the Ball Game 13-12. After their big win over Factory, Y.P. just squeaked by Wreck Room 7-6 to remain tied for the division lead. Wreck Room then defeated Unicorn 16-9. In Division 2, Paradise broke open a tight game to beat Club 219 to move within a half game of first place. Club 219 then recorded a 7-0 forfeit over First St. By the way, did anyone notice which team had their battery (the pitcher and catcher) whose combined ages exceed the century mark?

The league takes a 2 week lay-off on June 30 and July 7 as 5 teams will participate in out of town tournaments. Factory II, Ball Game and Wreck Room will compete in the Canada Cup Tourney in Toronto in June 29-July 1. The following weekend, M&M will head south to Atlanta for some southern hospitality in the Armory Invitational Tournament, while Your Place will trek east to Boston for the First Beantown Invitational Softball Tournament.

Preliminary information has been received on travel to Houston in August for the Gay Softball World Series. The official travel agent in Houston has indicated the cheapest fare from Milwaukee is $314, based on taking Midstate Airline to Chicago and American Air to from there to Houston. Return trip is American to Chicago, and Simmons back to Milwaukee. The round trip fare from Chicago to Houston is $200 on American. This is quite a savings, so alternative plans may be in order to get to Chicago. United Airlines Super Saver fare from Milwaukee to Houston was $339 round trip. See forthcoming issues of In Step Jock Shorts for up-to-the-minute information.

Jo Anne Worley

W.IS.: You very kindly helped us with the Muscular Dystrophy benefit, "Worley's Weekend" on your last visit. Your team on the show, Hot Potato, raised $6,000 for Actors and Others for Animals. Can you tell us about this charity and your involvement with it?

J.A.W.: I do happen to be on the Board of Directors for Actors and Others. I started out as a worker person and happened to get more and more involved. Actors and Others tries to do what they can for animals, in many different areas. One of them being to help people who can't afford to have their animals have an operation, medication, or even find the right veterinarian, animal placement, animal legislation. Whenever there is a major need or catastrophe, for instance Three Mile Island, we helped take care of the animals. There was a big flood in Texas so we aided in taking care of the horses. Helping with the whales. We donate money to other charitable organizations who need it.

W.IS.: Tell me please what is your husband, Roger Perry, doing these days?

J.A.W.: Roger, who usually does Herbie in "Gypsy" with me, and we do a lot of shows together as you know, is doing "Skylark" in Los Angeles. As a matter of fact, they opened the same night we opened in "Gypsy" as part of the Olympic Arts Festival. And he's kissing a woman every night who happens to, thank God, be my stepson, Chris Perry, is playing in the Olympic Gala Opening and Closing.

W.IS.: If I remember right, you were discovered by Gower Champion while he was casting for "Carousel"?

J.A.W.: Yes, one of my discoverers. I think everybody's career is a series of being discovered many times. I auditioned for the National Company. He came up on stage and said, "Jo Anne, you're absolutely perfect for the role but we don't know who we're going to cast opposite you yet. One is shorter than you, but if we cast the taller gentleman then we'd love to have you do it." Well, he cast the short one and I still did the part so that's good. He was very instrumental in my career. And also, he called me when the show closed in Chicago to be Carol Channing's standby for "Hello Dolly" out of town in Washington, DC and for the first few months of the successful Broadway run.

W.IS.: I love your philosophy. What is the difference between a standby and an understudy?

J.A.W.: About $500 a week. Literally, the understudy is usually somebody in the show. The standby is somebody who's not in the show and doesn't have to be at the theatre every night, unless God forbid . . .

W.IS.: You've had a wonderful TV career and you've got a tremendous stage presence. Which does Jo Anne prefer doing?

J.A.W.: I like variety. Well, theatre is my first experience, I certainly have the equipment for theatre. However, I do enjoy the quickness of television. I just like to be able to do different things. As a matter of fact, I'm going to start some lecturing.

W.IS.: Your combination of making breakfast and getting pretty on "Hour Magazine" was great fun. Any tips you'd like to share with us at this point?

J.A.W.: Yes, I did hear that watermelon seeds are very good for you. You should eat them. Better you eat the seeds and throw out the watermelon. They are better for you than sunflower seeds or anything. Or you can string them and wear them . . .

W.IS.: If you could have a magic wand and could make anything in the world happen for Jo Anne right now, what would it be?

J.A.W.: Oh, I'd like to be doing the revival on Broadway of "Gypsy".

W.IS.: Here's hoping we see it and you know I'll be there!

A Visit With Jo Anne Worley

by Kevin Michael

Arts columnist Kevin Michael had the pleasure of interviewing a marvel, who for the fifth time, has returned to Milwaukee to fascinate as the star of Melody Top's Gypsy, Miss Jo Anne Worley. She has also starred in productions of Once Upon A Mattress, Anything Goes, Hello Dolly, and Ain't Misbehavin' at the Top. Now meet the charming comedienne, Miss Jo Anne Worley.

W.I.S.: Your back for your fifth show, how wonderful. What's your reaction to being back in Milwaukee.

J.A.W.: The best part about coming back other than doing "Gypsy", which is a role that I really love and I adore doing it, is that there are so many good friends here that I enjoy seeing. I like when you grow up that you have a past, and in your past are friends. And one thing about show business is that you don't always have to say goodbye. You get to see people again and that's one of the good things about being back in Milwaukee.

W.I.S.: Recently you come from Long Beach where you performed "Gypsy" with your husband, Roger Perry. You've received raves both there and here on the show. How does that make you feel?

J.A.W.: Very, very good. As a matter of fact, I don't really need reviews. When you first start out in show business, you're out of course reading reviews. You're thrilled and delighted to see your name in print. Then after you've achieved a certain amount of success, sometimes reviewers are looking to shoot you down. Sometimes reviewers would say, "Oh, she's doing "Laugh In". I wasn't doing "Laugh In", I was just doing it. I stopped reading reviews because sometimes when you see things in print, it gives more validity whether or not it's true. All I know is when I do my work, I do the very best I can. So I read reviews after the show closes.

W.I.S.: There's a depth and intensity to Momma Rose. What's the secret?

J.A.W.: It's beautifully written. It's masterfully written. The book and the music. Of course, Ethel Merman created it and she was a strong performer and I am a strong performer. And I have done this show many times since I was quite a bit younger. I feel now that I'm growing in this role and I am pleased that there is a role of this caliber that I will be able to do, God willing for several years.

W.I.S.: You started out as a singing secretary like Miss Merman, didn't you?

J.A.W.: Well, only my boss didn't know it. I worked at an insurance company and they thought I was going to be Miss Wonderful Insurance. I was secretary to the President. But what I was doing was paying my rent and my music lessons and at night I was doing musicals for no money.

W.I.S.: What's the real Jo Anne Worley really like? Is she very much like the stage persona?

J.A.W.: Kind of what you're seeing right now. I enjoy making people laugh. I enjoy entertaining people. I guess yes, pretty much what you see on stage depending on what the role demands. When I did "Annie Get Your Gun", it's certainly different from Momma Rose, but it all comes from the same source.

W.I.S.: The "Laugh In" stint was great, but did it ever impede you in any way?

J.A.W.: What I also did before were reviewers saying, "Oh, she's doing "Laugh In" things." Because it was so terribly successful and so innovative, we're all so recognized and that's good. But when I did "Annie Get Your Gun", because of the kind of show it was, revue - quick things, in order to make an impact or to get the point across, you had to be very histrionic and do whatever it is to its furthest degree and quickly. And, a lot of people who are uninformed would think that's all that you can do just that certain style, but that's not the way it is.

W.I.S.: Have you asked to you. Have you heard any good chicken jokes lately?

J.A.W.: I heard one here in Milwaukee but it's one I have heard before. Why did the chicken cross the road? To see Greg... Peck! Booddorrimmmggg!

And at 3 p.m. Monday through Fridays, Bobby Rivers and Liz Ayers host the MORE show on the Channel 12 stage. And of course, the clowns and mimes will roam the grounds along with organ grinder Bill Hoffman and Mr. Monk. (That fuckin' monkey throws pennies back at you if you had him one — this monkey-only works for silver or bills!) If you've never seen David Seebeach's magic act, catch him at 7 or 8 p.m. any night at the Children's Theatre.

Music is a big part of Summerfest — but it serves as background to the food, relaxation, sunning, drinking . . . and cruising.

Have a great time — in a great city!

"Concerned" — a group from Green Bay "crawled" Milwaukee night spots recently.
"The world's largest music festival" and the Cream City's premiere "event" hits Milwaukee for the next eleven days. "Something for everyone" applies to the music, the food, and the people. The grounds are located just southeast of downtown (just off I-94 and I-794) and are conveniently accessible to a majority of Milwaukee's gay and lesbian night spots. Eleven different stages with continuous entertainment from noon until midnight — all for $5 at the gate.

With all the "official" Summerfest guides and brochures, In Step decided to do its own guide to all the action, picking out what we feel are the better highlights.

Caution: If you're "weak" or can't "control" yourself around half-naked bodies — Summerfest may be hazardous to your health. (W. W. Wells III wanted to do "W. W. Wells' Guide To Summerfest's T-Rooms" — but we wouldn't let him.)
