Wisconsin Passes HTLV-III Antibodies Test

Wisconsin Governor Anthony Earl signed into law July 17th, an amendment to guarantee confidentiality to persons taking the HTLV-III Antibodies test at the 29 state sites set up to administer the test (see related story this issue).

The following confidentiality guidelines must be followed at those 29 sites:

1. Written consent must be obtained to perform the test.
2. Only the patient and his doctor may have access to test results.
3. Anyone who tests positive must be told in a face to face interview to explain the reliability (or lack of) of the test, the effects and known treatments of AIDS, and to be referred to counseling sources.
4. Insurance companies are prohibited from requiring the test or using its' results to deny coverage.
5. Employers may not use the test as a precondition of employment.

ABA Votes Down Gay Rights Measure

WASHINGTON (GNIC) — Delegates to the American Bar Association's annual meeting July 16th narrowly rejected a measure calling for an end to discrimination based on 'sexual orientation.'

The resolution urged 'federal, state and local governments to adopt legislation prohibiting discrimination in employment, housing and public accommodations on the basis of sexual orientation.'

Opposition to the measure was strong.

'If you approve this resolution it will suggest to America that its lawyers approve of deviate sexual conduct,' said Joe Stamper, an attorney from Antlers, Okla.

However, Dan Bradley, the former head of the Legal Services Corp. under President Carter, who admitted his homosexuality when he left the post, spoke for the measure.

'It is not easy being an openly gay person in America today,' he said. 'We must accept criticism and humiliation of our lifestyle. But what we cannot accept is being denied our basic rights and opportunities.'

Gay Immigrants Allowed into U.S.

SAN FRANCISCO (GNIC) — U.S. District Judge Robert Aguilar has issued a temporary injunction declaring that immigration officials cannot deny foreigners entry to the United States because they admit to homosexuality.

The case involved a Mexican writer, Juan Jacobo Hernandez, 43, who was invited to be grand marshal of Sunday's Lesbian-Gay Freedom Parade in San Francisco.

The homosexual rights proposal was submitted by the Association of the Bar of the City of New York, section of individual rights and responsibilities and young lawyers division.

The case involved a Mexican writer, Juan Jacobo Hernandez, 43, who was invited to be grand marshal of Sunday's Lesbian-Gay Freedom Parade in San Francisco.

Hernandez actions upon arrival were orchestrated by homosexuals as a test of immigration policies.

The homosexual rights proposal was submitted by the Association of the Bar of the City of New York, section of individual rights and responsibilities and young lawyers division.

The issue grew out of a 1982 case in which Aguilar held authorities must conduct a medical test before denying entry on the basis of homosexuality.

In the Hernandez case, the government argued that Hernandez's self-avowal of his homosexuality to a Public Health Service physician constitutes a sufficient medical test.

On Friday Aguilar said there was no sufficient and, under the law, authorities must conduct a 'meaningful' medical test.

David Libbert, local immigration service director, said he was 'disappointed' and the government may appeal.

Wisconsin AIDS Toll Climbs

Five more people have died in Wisconsin in the quarter ending June 30th, raising the state toll to 25 dead in two years, according to the State Department of Health.

A total of 47 confirmed AIDS cases, scattered throughout the state, were reported by June 30th. Of the 47 diagnosed, 29 were Wisconsin residents and 18 were non-residents diagnosed or treated in Wisconsin.

Homosexual or bisexual males accounted for 39 of the cases.

Koch's Exec Order Voided

ALBANY, N.Y. (GNC) — New York Mayor Edward Koch said he accepts with 'great sadness' a decision by the state's highest court that he cannot ban the Roman Catholic church from discriminating against homosexuals in hiring.

The measure would outlaw discrimination on the basis of sexual preference in housing, according to NEWSDAY newspaper.

The measure would outlaw discrimination on the basis of sexual preference in renting apartments and the sale of real estate. Sponsors of the bill described the victory as a step forward in protecting gays in housing, according to NEWSDAY newspaper.

'By approving this we’re opening up a Pandora’s box on a gay rights bill,' said Assem. Glenn Warren, (R -Duchess), who voted against the bill.

The three-hour debate on the measure touched on issues ranging from religious rights to the notion of homosexuals as child molesters.

'This is dangerous legislation that could possibly violate the religious rights of millions of people,' said Dov Hikind, (D -Brooklyn), noting that Jewish and Catholic doctrines oppose the practice of homosexuality.

But the vote crossed party and geographic lines in a vote that supporters called a litmus test on a civil rights issue.

Custody Battle Ends

(Milwaukee Sentinel) — Frank Batey gave up the fight against his fundamentalist Christian ex-wife for custody of their son, saying he was weary of court battles.

In San Diego, Batey, an acknowledged homosexual, said he had gained ‘piece of mind’ as he gave up the legal battle by knowing that his 14-year-old son, Brian, would not be forced to choose between parents he both loves.

However, Batey's withdrawal from the case does not mean that his ex-wife will automatically get custody of Brian.

The boy has been living in a foster home during the closed court hearings to determine custody.

Betty Lou Batey has contended that her ex-husband should not have custody because of his homosexuality, which is against her religion.

In September 1982, Mrs. Batey took Brian from Mr. Batey, who had been granted custody. Mrs. Batey and Brian went underground before surrendering to authorities in April 1984.

Mrs. Batey was convicted of contempt of court and sentenced in February to 15 days in jail for violating the court order that had granted custody to Mr. Batey.

Man-Boy Advocate Sentenced

MINEOLA, N.Y. (GNIC) — The last of eight men charged in connection with a group that wanted to legalize homosexual sex with children is being held without bail on Long Island following his extradition from the Netherlands.

Stewart Geller, 38, was extradited from Amsterdam on July 4th and surrendered to Nassau County on Long Island, said Joel Weiss, chief of the racketeers bureau in the district attorney’s office.

He appeared in district court in Mineola on Friday and was ordered held at the Nassau County Jail, Weiss said.

Geller was arrested in Amsterdam in November 1984 through the cooperation of Interpol. He is charged with sodomy and sexual abuse of two boys, ages 12 and 13.

He is the last of eight men charged in 1981 in connection with the North American Man Boy Love Association, which operated out of a rented Baldwin Harbor house.

The seven others pleaded guilty to various sex charges and all were sentenced to jail terms.

The reputed leader of the group, Martin Swithinbank, 56, photographed the sexual activity. He received the stiffest sentence in the case so far, seven to 15 years.

When he was arrested, Swithinbank was a member of NAMBLA’s board of directors and was involved in attempts to legalize sexual relations between consenting boys and adult males.

At the time the alleged sex offenses were committed in Baldwin Harbor, Geller lived in New York City and was working at a summer camp for boys in Pennsylvania, said Nassau County District Attorney Denis Dillon. When the sex ring was broken up, Geller fled to Florida, Weiss said.

In Palm Beach, he allegedly was involved in the sexual abuse of five members of a Cub Scout troop who ranged in age from 8 to 13, Weiss said.

Letters

Dear Tom,

I am replying to your letter to InStep stating concern for the cost of World Series 9, and where the monies go.

First, no entry fee can be charged for player or team per NAGAAA rules.

Second, the awards banquet for 400 people will cost $12,750.00, unless you can find a building with facilities to accommodate almost a thousand people.

Other expenses such as transportation for people arriving at the airport and then taken to hotels, softballs $500.00, rental of county parks and fields, sound equipment, umpires have to be hired, advertising, printing, trophies, first aid supplies, etc.

We could never bid for the World Series if it were not for the gay community volunteering their time and materials.

The men and women working to put together this fine event also are the same people who give Milwaukee the HIT Bowling Tournament, Volleyball, Canoeing, Camping trips, etc., raise money for Toys for Tots, Milwaukee County Children's Home, and BEST Clinic just to mention a few.

As for AIDS, the gay community solicited funds raising thousands of dollars with the BEST Clinic. The M & M bar and restaurant had a fund raiser for AIDS Saturday night, July 13, were you there?

Tom, you stated you never worked with any organization. Well, it's about time you get involved. I suggest you get your head out of the sand. Limit your gossip to what you know your talking about and spend your energy helping the gay community be it sports activities, AIDS etc.

Signed,
Ronald Charles Burd

'Mass Appeal' by Kevin Michael

Not long ago, I had the pleasant opportunity to view one of those films they call a 'sleeper.' Its release in the Milwaukee market was at best brief but I'd count it among one of the finest films I've seen as of late. The movie was 'Mass Appeal' based on the popular play of the same name by Bill C. Davis.

'Mass Appeal' deals specifically with belief, honesty, commitment, and relationship. It's plot is not terribly unique but the framework Hollywood's marquees and household names are surnames. Jack Lemma, always a strong character actor, does not disappoint. Charles Durning as the rector is commanding.

Interestingly enough, the questions laced through the film to provide conflict are sexual in nature. When the seminarian raises his voice against the dismissal of two others because of supposed 'particular friendship' (gaysness), he is branded as suspect by the rector. Later in conversation with the parish priest, he admits to a bisexual experience and vows to be completely honest with the rector. The pastor advises the young student chal- lenges him through honest confrontation.

Yet, in the midst of all this conflict the parish priest once again finds himself and comes to terms with taking a stand regarding the sexual appetites of priests as values neither.

Zeljko Ivanek as the student is wonderful. His performance makes quite a debut for one who has refused to change his name for Hollywood's marques and household greats. Jack Lemmon, always a strong character actor, does not disappoint. Charles Durning as the rector is commanding.

What evolves is a touching and poignant look at the human condition and price of social justice and human rights, is sent to work in a parish under an extremely popular, inwardly sterile and without meaningful faith - face before there's little or nothing left? Is it wise middle course because he has grown to further appreciate the young man's gifts and too much honesty may cause the seminarian his ministry and play right into the rector's manipulatively hands.

What we experience is a conflict of power and control as the prevalent force in the drama as it unfolds against these sexual questions. How homophobic are some? How honest can you be? Should you be? Is it best to be a little dishonest for a greater good?

Yet, in the midst of all this conflict the parish priest once again finds himself and comes to terms with taking a stand regardless of the cost. The young student challenges him through honest confrontation and dialogue. Given all the media hype regarding the sexual appetites of priests as of late, what develops between the two is profound and has no sexual overtones.

I strongly recommend you experience this film. It's powerful and well worth your time and effort to find it. Let's hope it returns soon!•

Wisconsin's 29 Sites for Testing for HTLV-III Antibodies

Following is a list of testing sites offering blood tests for antibodies to the virus HTLV-III, which is believed to cause AIDS. According to State guidelines, all testing sites must offer post-testing counseling to explain the results of the test and offer referral and resource information. Call the sites to find out testing times and schedules.

The AIDS Antibody test only shows if someone has been exposed to AIDS, it does not mean someone has or will get the dreaded disease. According to a division of Health spokesperson, "anywhere from 3% to 17% with antibodies will go on to develop AIDS."

Dr. Robert Keller, a physician working with AIDS patients at the Zablocki VA Medical Center in Milwaukee tested three confirmed AIDS patients in a research project who tested negative on the HTLV-III antibody test for AIDS. He said there were too many false-positive and negative results from the test.

(Editors' Note: InStep suggests you make an informed decision before taking this test due to its lack of reliability to produce correct results. We also suggest that if you decide to take the test, that you go to the most gay-sympathetic clinics possible. Unfortunately, there are only two we can recommend at this time: BEST in Milwaukee and Madison's Blue Bus. They are printed in bold on the following list of testing sites.)

More Sexual Abuse Arrests

Viroqua, WI (Milwaukee Journal) — Vernon County Sheriff Geoffrey Banta said a discovery of alleged sexual abuse of teenage boys at a rural home ‘Makes my stomach turn over.’

Three men from Westby and Stoddard all over 40 of age were charged last week with second-degree sexual assault in an incident involving a 14-year-old La Crosse boy.

Banta said he expected more arrests and more victims to be turned up by his department’s investigation of activities at a home in the Town of Bergen.

He said investigators believed that at least four or five more boys from La Crosse, ages 12 and 13, had been abused at the home. He said he expected at least one more arrest and more charges, adding that he has evidence that one adult paid for sex.

One victim contacted Banta Wednesday after reading news reports of the arrests.

The sheriff said he has had complaints about the residence for at least two years from people who saw boys continually going in and out of the house.

“All we had were suspicions, though and nothing concrete,” he said. “These cases are hard to prove and now I believe that we have the proof.”

Banta said the investigation got started because the one man’s landlord who is from Seattle, Washington, became upset because too many men were living in the home.

On July 2, Stoddard Police Chief Bob Brown and Vernon County Deputy Sheriff Steve Bekkedal removed some men from the residence.

At that time, one of the men living there handed Brown a packet of letters that he said would show that boys had been molested at the house, according to documents filed in Vernon County Circuit Court.

According to Vernon County Dist. Atty. LaMont Jacobson, parents apparently took the boys to the home to spend a day away from the city.

Did you catch Cora Mae's re-debut at her 'brother' Corey's birthday party at La Cage? George could save on entertain expenses by using her in shows. I'm sure she comes cheap.

Weren't the Milwaukee fireworks combined with the Pointer Sisters on Summerfest's Main Stage just too much...again? Last year they were on stage during the fireworks and got off on it so much that they requested the same date when they were re-booked this year. As far as I'm concerned it could become an annual event.

Rod's and Jo Dee's both celebrated their anniversaries the week of the 4th. On the 4th itself, there was a veritable feast of cook-outs with the grills grinnin' at Finale, Clay's, and the Ballgame. Rod's had a cook-out and Jo Dee's went all the way with a pig roast.

On the 5th, Jackie, a friend of Mike, and myself took off for Rod's for the day. His annual anniversary cocktail party keeps me supplied with ideas for hors d'oeuvres to delight friends with for the rest of the year.

The Wreck Room certainly had a novel idea with the introduction of 'Wheel of Fortune' on Sunday Nights. All that's needed now is for Jimmy to dress up like Vanna White.

The Shack ended its reign three miles north of the State line on Rt. 32 and up and moved to a new location with a new name. Club 94 premiered the next night on Frontage Road off of I-94 (HWY C, Exit 343). The bar is divided into a cocktail bar and a large dance floor area which featured spot entertainers on their opening night.

Flamingo Fest - a Series IX fundraiser sponsored by the YP Flamingos Softball team featured booths and games sponsored by different SSBLE teams raised some of the many dollars needed to put on Series IX. The series is coming up the last week of August...are you ready?

Another barrier to condom use, besides sex appeal and availability, is a 'fear' that they will break or not work properly. Pappas explained that there are three common reasons for condom breakage which can easily be avoided. Latex condoms are not effective if they are more than two years old, because the latex breaks down; have air bubbles trapped in them, because they can more easily burst; and if oil or petroleum-based lubricants (crisco, tube, performance) are used, because these will cause the latex to break down.

It is commonly believed by medical researchers that condoms will prevent the passage of many common sexually transmitted pathogens, including herpes, yeasts, CMV, EBV, gonorrhea, syphilis, and chlamydia. Although not yet conclusively studied, condoms are also thought to be effective barriers against the HTLV-I, the virus associated with AIDS.

Psychiatrist Guilty of Sexual Charges

Eau Claire, Wl (Journal) A Circuit Court jury recently found Jack Edson, former president of the Wisconsin Psychiatric Association, guilty of three of four counts of second degree sexual assault involving his former patients.

Edson, 56, former chief of psychiatry at Luther Hospital in Eau Claire, had been convicted of six sexual assault counts in July, 1984, but those convictions were overturned because the presiding judge had improperly entered the jury room, and a retrial was ordered.

The jury acquitted Edson on a charge involving a male patient, now 23, who was 18 years old at the time of an alleged incident. Jurors found Edson guilty of three counts involving male patients age 18.

Edson had admitted having sexual contact in 1979 with one of the patients who was 16 at the time. But Edson testified that the action was only for therapeutic purposes and that it helped calm the patient, who was in a state of near panic.
The Wreck Room's 'Wheel of Fortune' offers something different to do on Sunday nights.

Vickert pondered his answer before winning the day's grand prize of a Color TV.

The Mr. & Miss South Eastern Gay Wisconsin Pageant held two AIDS fund-raiser shows at M & M's and La Cage. The shows were rather long, but Jimmy King said 'when everybody turned out to do a song for AIDS, we just couldn't turn them away.' After paying raffle prizes, they earned $420.00 for AIDS.

Wasn't the Circus Parade enjoyable? I walked about 10 blocks of the parade route before the parade started and saw only a scattered throughout the route. The biggest 'pockets of gayness' were between Paradise and M & M. The friendly cheers and bawling back and forth between these gay groups was so enjoyable that the 'straight' even joined in. Everyone seemed to get along so well together. I hope it's back next year. I think InStep might have it's own reviewing stand if it does.

The Wreck Room threw a Circus Circus Party where the staff all dressed in clown outfits and passed out balloons. I loved the Caliope music mixed in with the regular music selection. All that was missing was the cotton candy, but they did bring back the peanuts.

Back East went for a 'Night with the Boys' with Madison entertainers Sass, Rosa, and Rini Ricci. Madison was all excited about the 219 girls show coming up there for a show earlier this week.

219 continues bringing in some excellent out-of-town entertainers to perform with the Sunday Night Cast. Recently, Chicago's Ginger Grant prowled their stage... (Imagine Chili Pepper mixed in with Divine.)

Coming Up:

As the 17th (deadline) drew near, I had information on the following special events to plan for. The month of August is going to be busy folks, so here goes:

The Mr. & Miss Gay Southeast Wisconsin Pageant - talent at the Ballgame on July 15th, and finals at La Cage on the 28th.

Odessa Brown rolls into Appleton for a show at 1101 West on July 15th, Christmas

VA Will Help Vets with AIDS

Former servicemen 'are welcome to seek treatment' at the nation's 172 Veterans Administration hospitals, officials told the Gay Veterans Association (GVA), at a recent meeting. Ralph Crossen, special assistant to VA administrator Harry Walters, said VA hospitals are required by law to admit any veteran who received an honorable discharge from the military and who cannot afford private hospitalization. He said AIDS patients have been admitted to 54 VA hospitals, mostly in New York and San Francisco. Milwaukee's Regional VA Hospital at Wauke is also currently involved in AIDS research projects under the guidance of Dr. Robert Keller, and several gay male AIDS victims have been treated there.

John Paine, GVA president asked the military to allow the GVA to place its brochures at all military out-processing centers so that gay and lesbian veterans may learn about the organization.

Condoms: Land O' Latex on San Francisco's Castro Street

It's Condom Mania on Castro Street in San Francisco, as area businesses launch an all-out condom campaign with designer condoms. Belder condoms, and lubed & unlub condoms to name a few.

The condom promotional plan was implemented by Les Pappas, community business outreach so that/AIDS prevention is not just talked about, but acted upon. Business owners are taking the lead in bringing condoms out from behind the counter and creating ways for customers to easily and cheaply get condoms.

One business will be selling condoms at cost --- for between 7 and 13 cents each. 'What's important about condoms,' Pappas said, 'is that people do need to experiment with different varieties so that they can find the brand which works best for them. Condoms come in different shapes, sizes, and colors... and textures, so it's important to know which condom type adds the most pleasure to your personal sexual expression.'

An indictment was returned there but by then Geller was in Amsterdam, he said.

Geller will be tried first in New York and then presumably extradited to Florida to face charges there, according to Weiss.

The Florida charge of sexual abuse of a child under 11 carries a life sentence on conviction, he said.

Resort Mayor Insults Gay Residents

REHOBOTH BEACH, DE (GNC) — The mayor of this seaside resort thinks homosexuals are ruining the town's family image. That infuriates gay visitors and business people who have poured money into the economy. They say they've already weathered 'the tomato-and-rock-throwing stage.'

"He wants us to be here and he wants us to spend our money, but he doesn't want us to be seen," said D. Michael Kiley, 22, of Wilmington, who was sunning himself on a section of sand known as 'Gay Beach.'

Mayor John Hughes is quick to acknowledge that homosexuals own some of the finest shops here and have invested thousands of dollars in real estate. But he's still concerned about their presence.

"They (homosexuals) may not be a problem, but the straight community's perception of them might be a problem," Hughes said. "I've had a number of people contact me and show concern that there are an increasing number of gays in the community."

He said Rehoboth, which has been a summer playground for Washington politicians for decades, is known for its family image and he says that image is bolstered by Fourth of July celebrations and sidewalk sales, not by gay bars and restaurants. Those sentiments, published recently in a Delaware newspaper, touched off a furor.

Congratulations to the Wreck Room Wings on their victory in the 3rd BiAnnual Twin City Good Time Softball Tournament held in Minneapolis over the July 4th Weekend. The Wings defeated Saloon Colts of Minneapolis and Kansas City stuff on Friday. On Saturday, they beat Julius of New York, before falling to Redoubt of Chicago. They bounced back to route last year’s World Series Champion Gay 90’s of Minneapolis, Trailing 5-2 in the rematch game with Redoubt of Chicago. The Wings rallied for 4 runs in the bottom of the 7th for a 6-5 victory. The final game was a pitching and defensive duel, with the Wreck Room Team defeating Redoubt 3-2. How sweet it is. Gary Blazek of the Wreck Room Spurs joined the Wings to gain his 2nd trophy in two weeks. 'More Cruising Television'

Once again we are in the midst of another dismal television season. The gay viewer is still ignored by the major television networks. There is one bright spot, however, the Gay Television Network. GTN programming is aimed specifically at the gay audience and provides an entertaining alternative to the programming aired by the other networks. GTN has provided me with a list of upcoming shows, which can be viewed locally on cable channel 69B...

The Countess of Mucho Crisco: (movie) A deranged drag queen and her sidekick Princess Tiny Meat capture the world's supply of vegetable shortening and threaten to cancel Crisco Parties forever, unless she can perform her act at the White House.

60-Seconds: A short, but in-depth documentary looking at the problem of premature ejaculation.

The Self-Abuse Boat: A woman (Sherry Jean King) becomes depressed when the galley runs out of cucumbers and salad oil.

Also, the Captain discovers it really does take two hands, one to hold the magnifying glass.

Everything for Money: (Game Show) Hustlers prove that money can buy you love, or at least sex.

Milwaukee Vice: Undercover detectives hit the trails and discover the fun that goes on behind the bushes in Juneau Park.

Gay Divorce Court: Biff sues Bruce for divorce after he discovers their pet dog, Fro Fro fro fro fro, walking funny. Bruce is counter-suing because Biff won't play 'escaped convict and warden's wife.'

Water Street Blues: After striking out at the bars, a young man discovers that the holes in the video booths at the bookstore are not for ventilation.
